GRIFFITH DECIDES ON HIS LINE-UP

Yanigans to Fight for Infield Positions—Ellerbe Joins Team.

By GEORGE L. MORELAND.
Jacksonville, Fla., Feb. 28.—President Griffith has decided upon his line-up for the spring training trip. Here is the batting order for the opening game with the Yanigans when the two clubs open the season, and from what the president had to say he will likely open the Cincinnati series with the same line-up, unless some youngster beats out one of the men.

He has decided to place them in this order: Judge, Miller, Rice, Roth, Ellerbe, Leonard, Shannon and the batteries. This is the list of men who will fill the infield and outfield at the start of the season, unless O'Neill or Harris can beat out Ellerbe or Leonard at the positions Griffith has placed them.

In case any man is to go, it will likely be Leonard, as the president-manager has fully made up his mind. He thinks that the former boy is going to make good in the big show.

If Ellerbe is finally decided upon at the shortstop, then it will be for one of the others to make good at third. Should O'Neill be the lucky one, then Ellerbe would be shifted to third and the Minooka lad go to short.

It looks very much as though Shannon is going to be the regular second baseman. With first and second settled upon, then the whole bunch will fight it out for third and short.

The outfield is settled upon, with Shannon as extra man. Griffith says he will give every man on the team a chance to make good at the two positions, and when he has found that man his team will be ready for the start.

"I must get this matter settled as soon as possible," said Griffith. "For we will not have much time to do any trying out after we open with the Cincinnati club, and then after that we will have no time to practice in the morning, so we must get the boys to show now what they can do before the 23d of next month."

President Griffith has just received word from Miller that he has accepted terms and will be on hand at the proper time. The leaves of Gharrett and Davenport still to be signed. In the latter case it is a question whether Griffith will bother much about the big fellow. All he wants is a big raise and half the purchase money. The purchase money is up to the Browns, as they have nothing to do with him now. They will, of course, refuse to pay him a cent. "I have made him what I think is a very fair offer," said Griffith. "so he can sign or let it alone."

Ellerbe was picked up during the night when all aboard were asleep so did not meet any of his companions and when he did he had to be introduced to almost every man, for many of the recruits were not with the team when the season closed.

Frank says he put in a good winter, and from his appearance he looks it. He is as hard as nails right now and in a couple of days will put him in good shape.

When the Washington club arrived here Pitcher Lackey reported to President Griffith. He got in at noon and upon learning that the Nationals would arrive at 3:15, decided to wait and leave for the training camp with his boss.

Owing to delay in connections the club will not arrive at Tampa until 3 a. m. using the sleepers until morning.

President Griffith has booked Washington to play at Pittsburgh on September 23, when his club is en route from Detroit home.

SYRACUSE HAS GOOD BASEBALL MATERIAL

Syracuse, N. Y., Feb. 28.—With but three members of last year's squad absent, prospects for a strong baseball team at Syracuse University during the 1920 campaign appear exceptionally bright. Coach Lew Carr has already called out the ball players which include, besides the veterans, a likely looking lot of new recruits.

The battery men and fields are being put through a series of practice sessions alternate days. The schedule is mapped out by Coach Carr, calls the pitchers and catchers out on Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons while the candidates for fielding positions report on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

JOE LYNCH HAS GATHERED IN COIN

New York, Feb. 27.—Flight champions aren't the only ones who hold keys to the mint. Some of the near champions and runners-up for the title crowns have been storing away money by the bags full. Joe Lynch, one of the best among the little fellows, who battled Jimmy Wilde twice in London, is one of the boys who does not need a championship monitor to work up a good bank account. Since getting out of the service about a year ago the New York bantam-weight has appeared in a score of big towns and has not lost a decision. He has earned about $35,000.

MURPHY WINS BIG AUTOMOBILE RACE

Los Angeles, Feb. 28.—Jimmy Murphy, driving a Deussen car, won the 250-mile automobile race staged here this afternoon at the New Los Angeles speedway. His time was 2:35:17, an average speed of 102.6 miles an hour. Murphy did not stop throughout the race, and finished three laps ahead of the field.

Orleans Stewards Justified in Suspension of Jockey Coltiletti

BY BERT E. COLLIER.

(All rights reserved by Collier's News Bureau.)

New Orleans, Feb. 28.—The ruling of the stewards suspending Jockey Coltiletti for the balance of the meeting coming as it did directly upon the heels of the much mooted Courtship "nose stuffing" incident, proved a savory morsel for the gossips to roll "neath their tongues. The officials were justified goes almost without saying. However, the general consensus of the opinion was that the boy, though undoubtedly the tool of the "higher-ups," knows right from wrong and should have been ruled off for life.

Harking back a bit, it will be seen that Abe Clifton, who holds the contract on Coltiletti, in company with Dave Gideon, John W. Scharr, and Placido Frigrie, have, to use the vernacular, "gotten away with murder" down here this winter. One, presumably in a position to know, asserts that the quartet have garnered upwards of $100,000. Probably the most glaring of efforts was when the "right" connections bet on Marvin Maid to beat Lady in Black and SHE DID.

Murphy to Blame.

In seeking the why and its of all this the major part of the onus falls directly on the shoulders of Judge Joseph A. Murphy, who seems the persistent "front" in the stewards' stand, seemingly could prevent these manipulators from getting away with such rough stuff. In this connection the better element argue that Murphy was in the "stand" at Jacksonville, Fla., when Clifton, in company with Dick Williams and Curley Brown manipulated, and was directly responsible for the adverse legislation that Clifton and such of his ilk should not have been allowed to light.

As to the management of Jefferson Park, they are not above criticisms, even though Murphy was "engaged." They should have seen that he was accorded a "vacation"—if they hope to see racing survive this winter's slaughter—also the bars should have been up for Clifton, Scharr, Gideon, and Jockey Coltiletti.

The Bar-One Case.

In passing and just by the way of confirmation—for the benefit of the "doubting Thomases"—it might be mentioned that the day Coltiletti "took" Bar-One, certain bookmakers were quietly laying even money the horse would not be third—and it wasn't. On the other hand, and also for the benefit of the "dynamiters," it is further mentioned that the "live one" in the race was Grande, with commissions planted in Chicago, Pittsburg and New York.

As to the Courtship scandal, it is reported that the stewards had "Whitely" Beck, the "leopard"

M'GRAW FIGURES TO SWING TRADE

New York, Feb. 28.—John McGraw intends to enter the battle for the pennant this year with a strong team, judging from reports received at Giant headquarters today. McGraw, it was made known, has offered to trade Ross Young, star outfielder, and probably several other players to the Cincinnati Reds for Eddie Roush and Larry Kopf.

Louis C. Widrig, treasurer of the Reds, acted for Cincinnati in dealing with the Giant manager. The Reds first offered to trade Roush for Young, but McGraw refused, countering with a proposition which included Kopf. It is believed McGraw may include Zimmerman in the trading deal.

bookie, on the carpet to explain his booking operations. It is also said that Frank Bain had been invited to do some explaining. One of the big liners that apparently missed the eagle eye of the stewards is Henry Yanf, who according to the ring coolies, "soaked" Woodstone to the tune of $8,000 and then wagered $2,000 with one layer that War Mask would be returned the winner.

That the winter season has run true to form, is proven up by the fact that one "orized"—quite close to the management of the Fair Grounds track—"welched" to the tune of $8,500. Some pressure, it is being brought to bear to force the racing association to make good the amount.

CONFIDENT BOXING WILL BE LEGALIZED

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 28.—Boxing will be legalized in this State by the present legislature, was the announcement made here today by Senator James J. Walker, father of the Walker bill, which will permit fifteen-round bouts in New York State. Senator Walker has amended this bill by increasing from 17 to 18 years, the age at which boys can engage in public exhibitions in "sat" armories, and states that the bill is amended will be reported favorably by the senate judiciary committee.

George Washington Quintet Closes Unsuccessful Season

The George Washington University basketball quint has drawn the curtain in one of the most unsuccessful seasons in the history of that institution. They simply were not in a class with the teams they met, either on local or foreign courts. The five never looked as good as in former years, due principally to lack of real college basketball material.

Their showing against Georgetown University disclosed that the Hilltoppers were superior to them in every department of the game. They caught Catholic University napping and defeated them at the "Y" 28 to 26. Catholic University did not play up to its standard in that game and went into the contest feeling that they need not expect themselves to win. The only other victory turned in by the Hilltoppers was against the "Y" over Gallaudet College by 24 to 21. Gallaudet was unfortunate in this contest in not having Bouchard, the stocky guard, in the line-up, and the fact that Downes played the entire game after an attack of the "flu." Downes has not played since, and it is doubtful if he will appear in the line-up again this season.

A great deal of credit is due the Hilltoppers for the way they fought for every contest. Even though they realized that they were not in a class with their opponents they were in there fighting for every game. George Washington had one real star in their line-up that kept them in the running. Gilman, their little forward, is one of the fastest lads seen on a local court this season. He can also shoot them through the net from all angles and in any position. He succeeded in scoring 101 points in the nine games in which he appeared, nearly half the total number tallied by his team during the season.

The Hilltoppers played eleven contests during the season, and were only victorious against Gallaudet College and Catholic University. Statistics follow:
